

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object: Vase in Keulenform Museum: Museum für Kunst und Kulturgegeschichte der Stadt DortmundHansastraße 344137 Dortmund0231/50-25522mkk@stadtdo.de Collection: Jugendstil - die Idee vom Gesamtkunstwerk Inventory number: C 6621 |
|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Braun überfangene Glasvase mit Ätzdekor aus Voluten endenden Schilfblättern. Bezeichnet D'Argental.

Basic data

|                     |         |
|---------------------|---------|
| Material/Technique: | Glas    |
| Measurements:       | H 30 cm |

Events

|         |       |                             |
|---------|-------|-----------------------------|
| Created | When  | 1900                        |
|         | Who   | Paul Nicolas D'Argental (-) |
|         | Where | France                      |

Keywords

- Industrial etching
- Phragmites australis
- Vase